

Security Professionals,

The (ISC)2 Quantico Chapter is currently looking for Speakers to address our Monthly Chapter Meetings. We meet virtually online, on the 3rd Wednesday of each month, using Microsoft 365 Teams, at 6:00 P.M.

Each month, we try to present a dynamic Security Professional Speaker to keep our members informed of advanced information security threats, vulnerabilities, risks; updated/revised governance; share experiences while ensuring secure information technology processing; and inform our members of historic/modern methodologies used in Cyberspace. Here are some of the topics presented over the last 2 years: ISC2Quantico website

Below are some broad topics of interest to our members:

1. Block Chain	11. Shadow & Rogue IT
2. Cloud Security	12. Identification of Website Owner Security Concerns
3. Cyber Defense & Threats	13. Supply Chain Risk/Management
4. Cyber Hygiene Basics	14. Identifying and Protecting Assets
5. Election Security	15. Incident Response
6. General Breach Preparedness	16. Underreporting of Incidents
7. Internet of Things	17. Third Party / Supply Chain / Vendor Risk
8. Open Source, Putty, SSH, TLS 1.3	18. Cybersecurity Governance
9. Overview of U.S. Cyber Command Partnerships	19. U.S. Code on Information Security
10. Risk Management Framework	20. U.S. OMB Security Concerns

If you are a Cyber Security Professional, available to speak for approximately 1 hour on a Specific Cyber Security related topic, we would like to hear from you. You can also propose Topics at Call-For-Speakers Referrals welcomed.
